PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director – IT Support Oil Price Information Service (OPIS), Gaithersburg, MD 3/12 – Present

- Created a new division to handle all of the non-project work that gets sent to the IT department – this allows the development staff on project teams to focus solely on new products.
- Directly and indirectly manage nine software developers and three database developers in Gaithersburg and also functionally manage two software developers and one database developer in Romania.
- Coordinate between OPIS and our parent company's ops team during system maintenance and outages

Project Manager Oil Price Information Service (OPIS), Gaithersburg, MD 09/09 – 3/12

- Managed a major project line within our software division successfully for two years.
- Managed a project over several months to create a new product which allows our customers additional visibility into the oil markets at the wholesale level.

Software Developer OPIS, Gaithersburg, MD 06/05 – 07/07, 05/08 – 08/08

- Migrated OPIS from a legacy Stratus system to a new .NET framework with a team of consultants.
- Analyzed the legacy system, wrote software specifications, developed .NET software implementations, and tested these software implementations based on the specification.
- Maintained and managed the new framework which was responsible for over twenty million dollars in revenue annually.
- Organized several popular interoffice events, including basketball and bowling.
- Recruited new employees at job fairs and information sessions.

ORGANIZATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Webmaster DC Chess League, Washington DC 9/12 – Present

- Rewrote the DC Chess League website from scratch using PHP with a PostgreSQL backend which allows the team captains to directly upload results to the website.
- Update and maintain the website for the Board of Directors.

Executive Director DC Chess League, Washington DC 05/05 – 06/07, 05/10 – 05/15

- Ran all of the day to day operations of the DC Chess League, a non-profit organization.

President University of Maryland Chess Club, College Park, MD 05/04 – 05/05

- Marketed, organized, and directed profitable chess tournaments at UMD for the first time in eight years.
- Captained three teams made up of college students in the DC Chess League.
